

Welcome from the President

Dear CSUCI Student:

As a new academic year begins, take this opportunity to look at the enclosed fall 2009 schedule of classes with a sense of self-discovery, opportunity and enthusiasm. The faculty have developed and selected nearly 1,000 courses that will challenge your mind and open educational vistas.

Through co-curricular activities on our campus, you can become involved in your University as you prepare for challenging professions. Take an active role in service-learning opportunities as well and make positive contributions to our campus and society while you grow in knowledge and expertise.

We look forward in the coming months to the grand opening of the University Student Union as a gathering place for an exchange of ideas, collaboration, and friendships. I encourage you to take advantage of this wonderful new facility as a way to advance your academic career and to establish lifelong connections.

Enjoy the fall semester here at CI – I wish you much success.

Sincerely yours,
